

Rules and Regulations

1. Students participating in online and offline classes are expected to be punctual and join at their scheduled time. No extra time will be granted for late arrivals.
2. If a student misses a class for any reason, a backup class will not be provided. In the event of an emergency that requires the teacher to cancel a class, a backup will be arranged.
3. Parents are asked to pay the fees by the 10th of each month. We reserve the right to modify our fees at any time.
4. Missed classes due to illness or unforeseen circumstances may be rescheduled, subject to availability. Classes missed without valid reasons will not be refunded or rescheduled.
5. Students who take a break for a month or more will need to pay a fee of ₹1000 per month to reserve their slot. If this payment is not made, the slot will be offered to another student.
6. Students are required to practice their instruments daily. The teacher will only introduce new topics if the assigned work has been practised.
7. Each month, all students will receive one holiday, which will be combined with a public holiday to provide an extended break.
8. There will be a holiday of seven days for both Diwali and Christmas. The specific dates will be provided two months in advance to assist in planning. No additional classes will be scheduled during these holidays.
9. Fees and classes cannot be carried over to the following month.
10. The teacher reserves the right to cancel a student's admission at any time if the rules are not followed.
11. We will be hosting our Annual Day celebrations in December, with both Offline and Online events. Participation is mandatory for all students, as this is a vital opportunity to showcase your talents.
